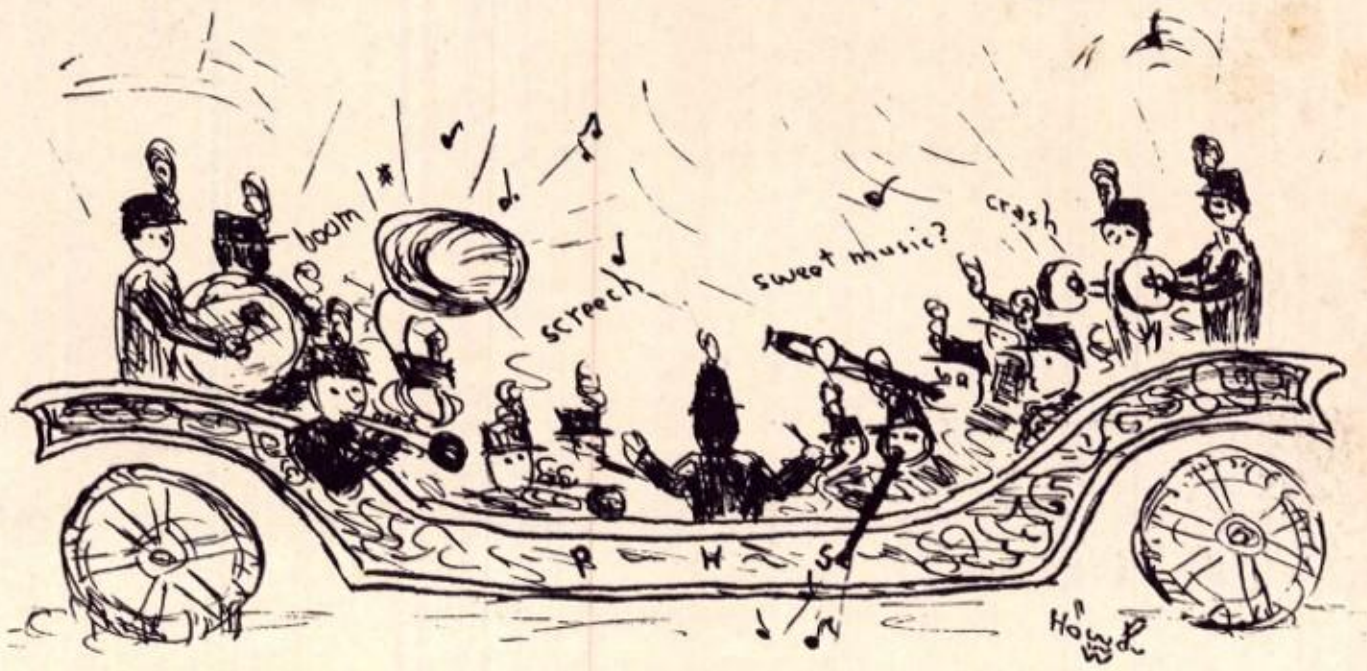
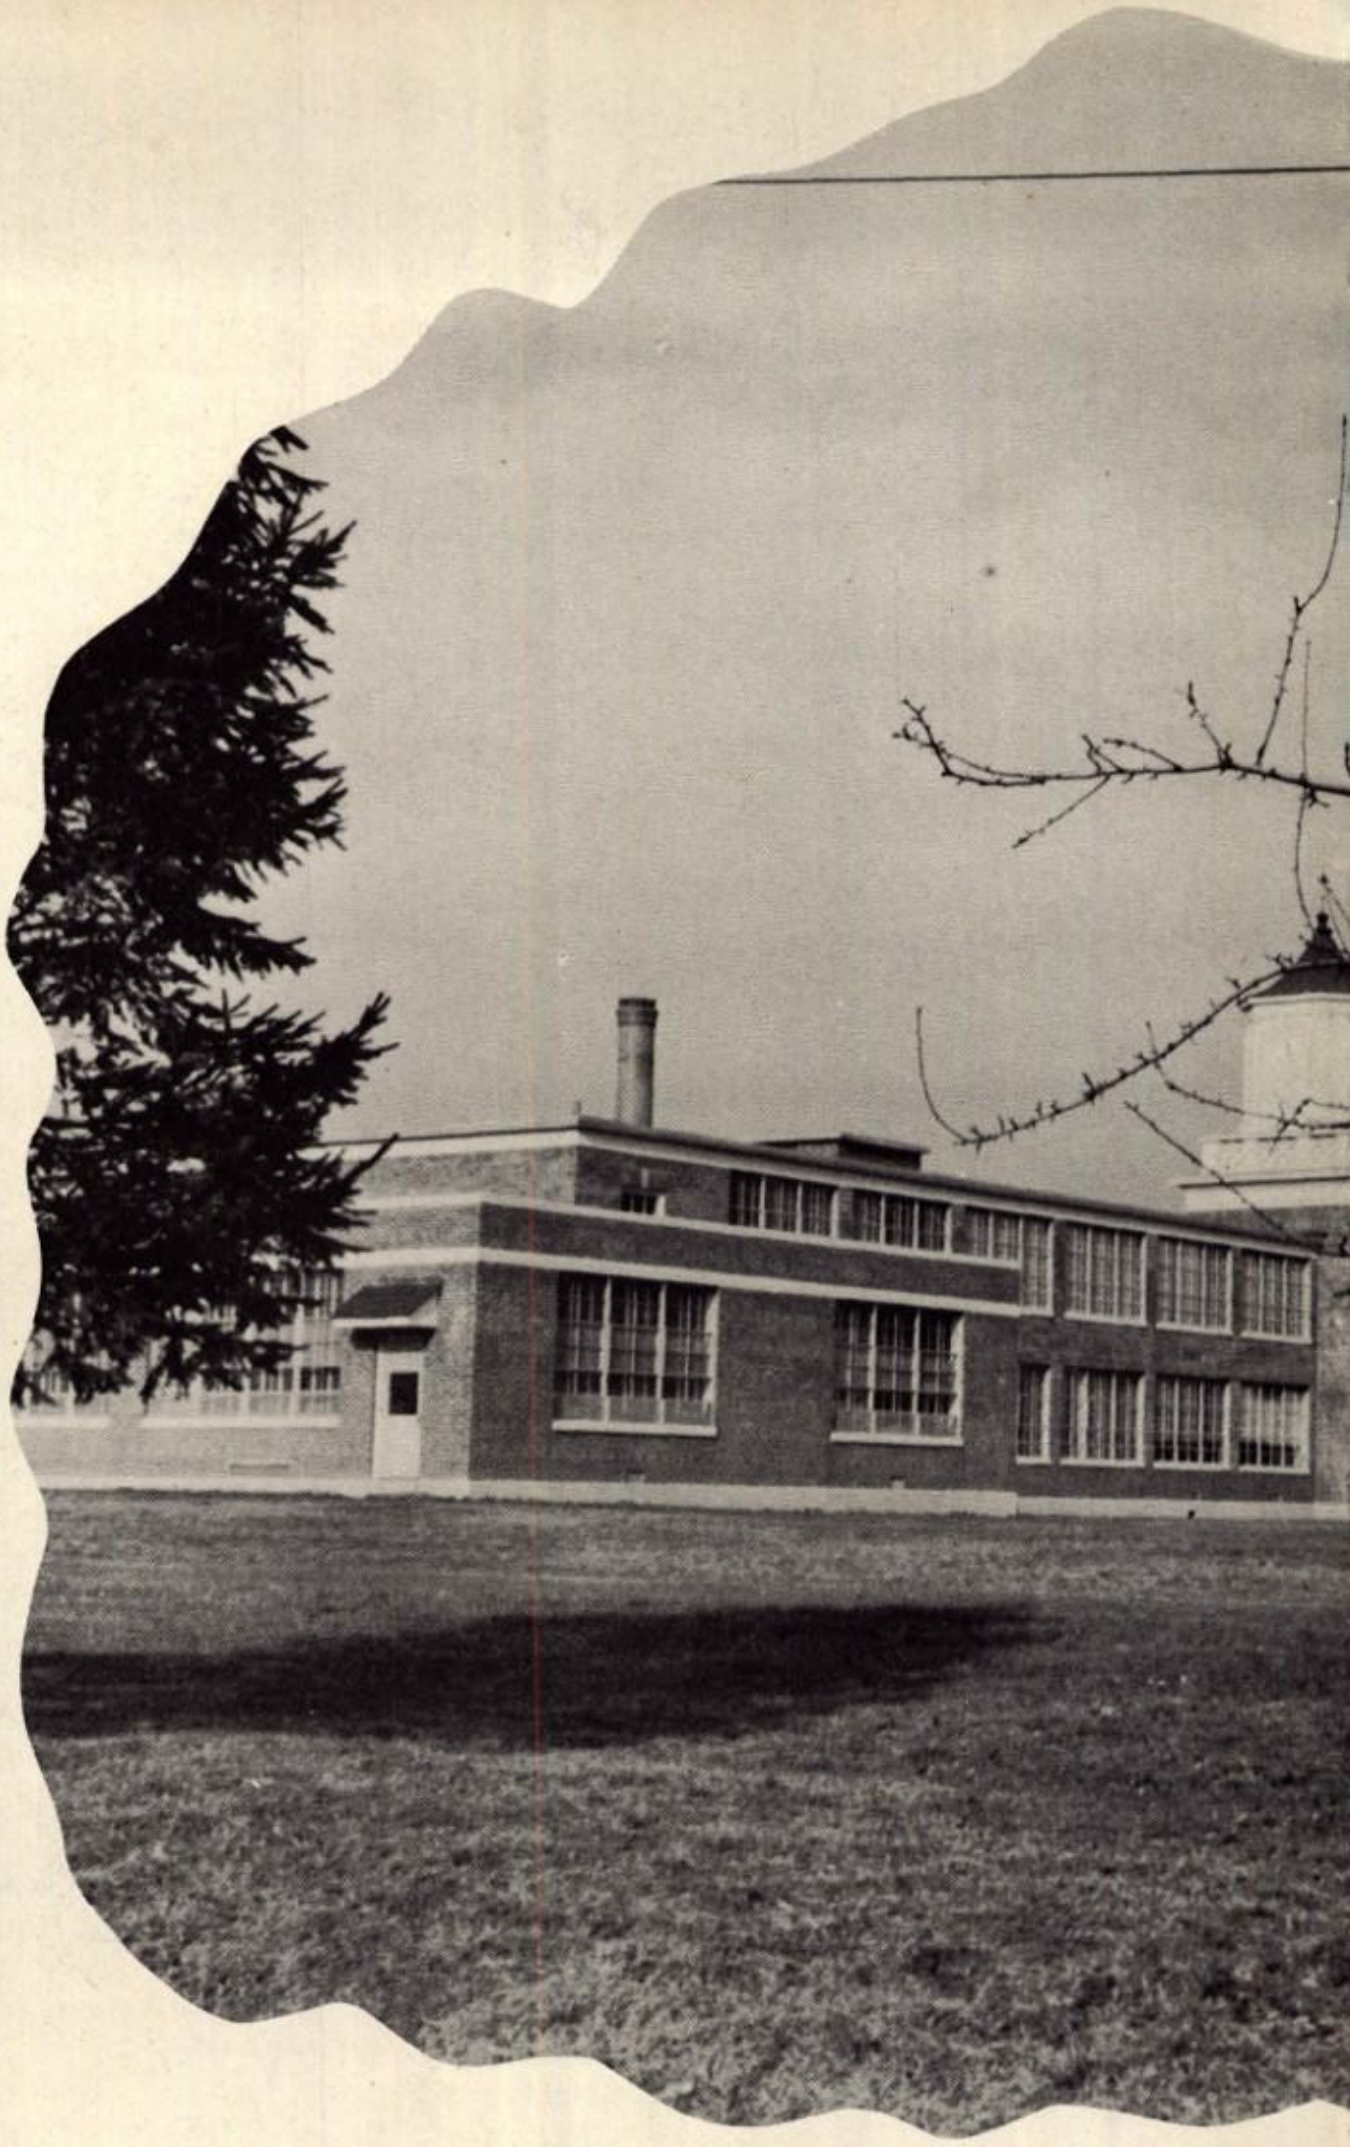
THE PENNSMAN 1953

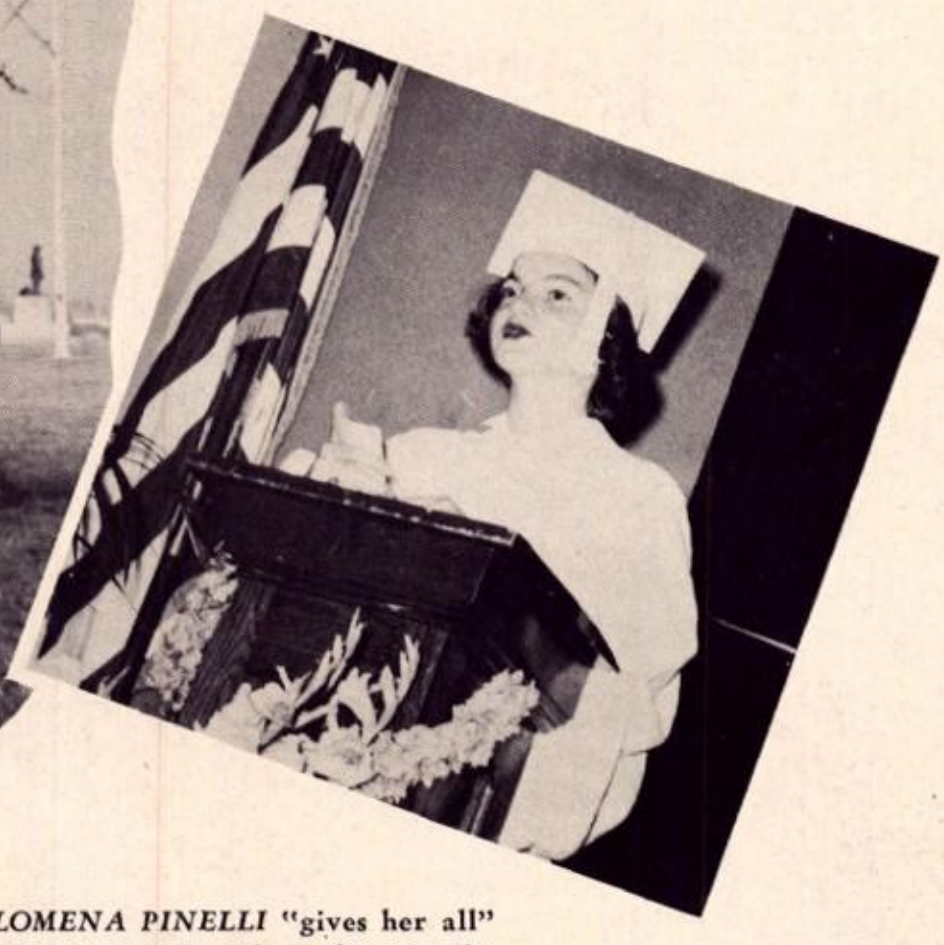




Published by the students of

PENNSBURY HIGH SCHOOL

LORING BIXLER, victor for the presidency of Student Council of 1952-53, is shown delivering his campaign speech. With all the fanfare of national elections, various political parties each May vie against each other to capture the coveted status of ruling group.

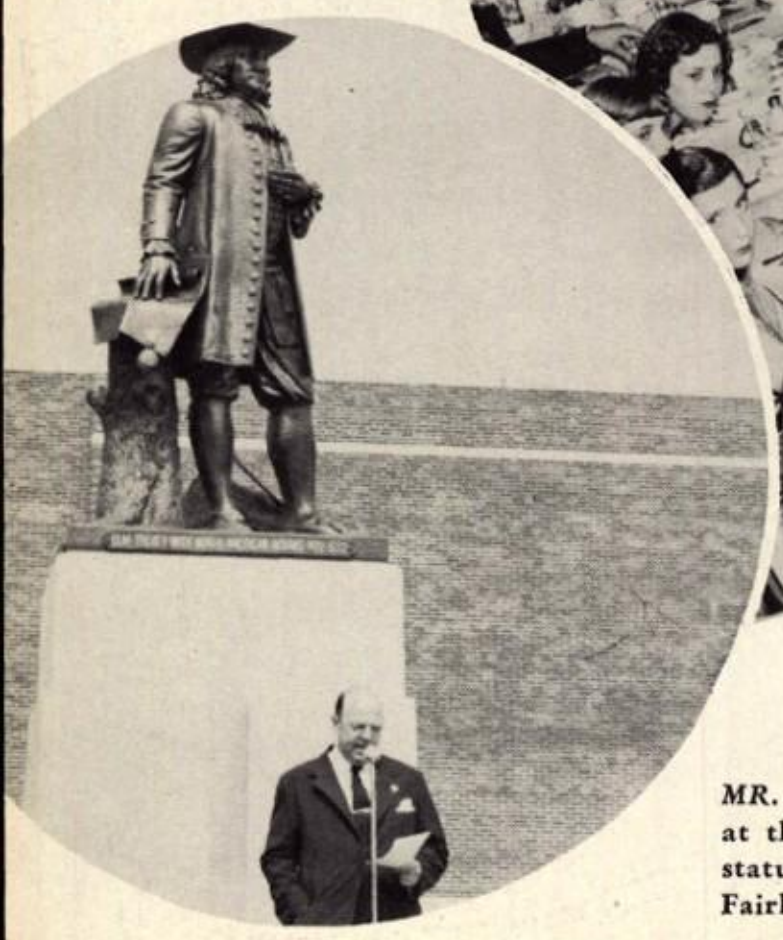


PHILOMENA PINELLI "gives her all" as she addresses the Class of 1952. She was among the speakers who for the first time last year were selected on a competitive basis to speak at the Commencement exercises. Previously, the two top ranking students had always been asked to serve as graduation speakers.

YARDLEY, PENNSYLVANIA

SEVERAL MEMBERS of the freshman class practice for a forthcoming assembly program.

EACH SPRING an "activities banquet" is sponsored by the Parent-Teachers' Association in honor of the students who have been outstanding in various school activities throughout the year.



MR. MILLER, U. S. Steel Company official, speaks at the unveiling ceremony of the William Penn statue which was given to the school by the Fairless Works.

HOMEROOM 7-2 is saluting the flag during daily opening exercises, which occurred for them this year at 1:10 P.M. because of double sessions.

"It's Easy to Remember" . . .

If one will pause to meditate during a busy day in school, it will become amazingly apparent to him in how many respects the different phases of school life could with the aid of a bountiful imagination be set to music. The tenor of some classes, of some activities, could lend themselves very readily to the jubilant strains of a triumphal march; that of others, to the sombre chords of a Russian dirge. Without exception in the course of a year in all areas will be struck, of course, some sour notes, for to some pupils the concise laws of the sciences and the appreciative vision required by the arts only become cacophanous. For the majority of students, however, high school will end with a thunderous finale similar to that in which an orchestra breaks after a turbulent overture. May the cascade of rolling notes, dynamic, ever changing, driving relentlessly onward over every obstacle to form a great musical composition interpret Pennsbury as one of the finest schools extant — a monument to man's efforts for a better world, if not in this generation, in the generations to come!

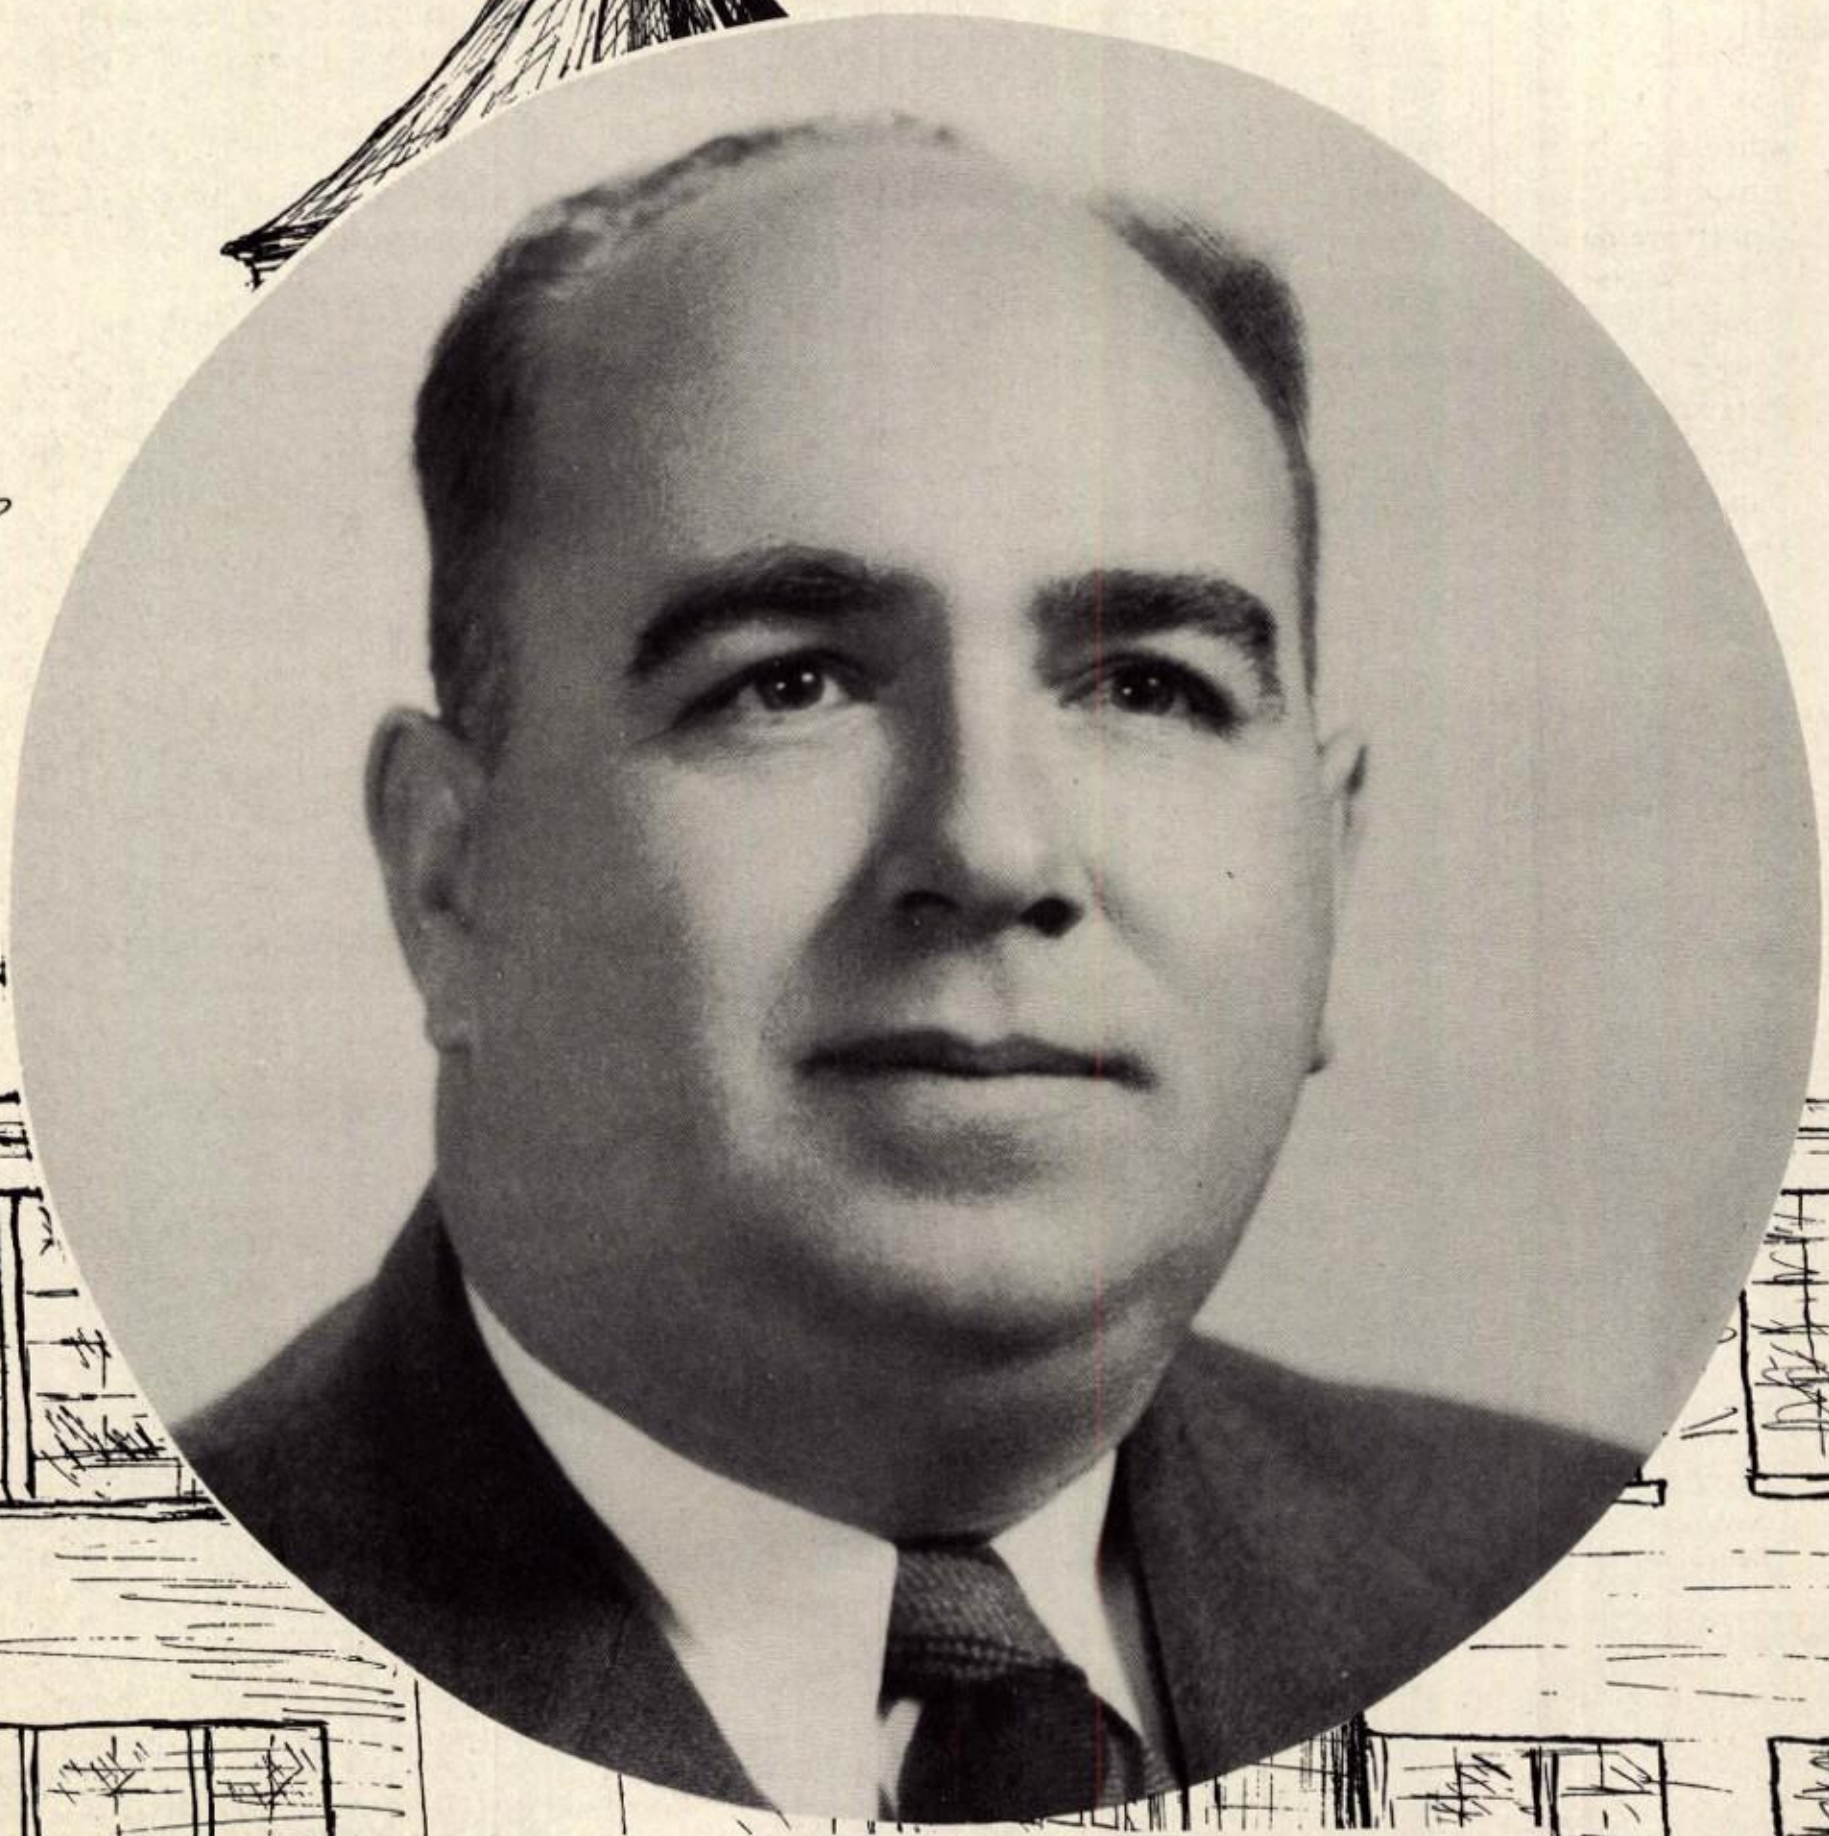
"All the Things You Are";



MR. MEDILL BAIR, Regional Superintendent, acts as the conductor of the great Pennsbury symphony. Incomplete as yet, it will not reach a resounding peak until new elementary schools are erected in Fairless Hills and Levittown, until a new junior high school building is erected in Oxford Valley, and until additions to the Makefield, Fallsington, and Senior High buildings are finished.

ASSISTANT SUPERINTENDENTS William Ingraham and Robert Hubbard, who are in charge of all business details, plan additional bus routes to take care of the students moving into the Levittown and Fairless Hills sections.

A good school begins with its faculty. Again Pennsbury proves the rule.

The staff at Pennsbury is competent and qualified for the many tasks that confront them. These men and women have proven their assets over and over again.

We at Pennsbury are fortunate to have their guidance, for, besides their ability to teach, they have other helpful qualities. They have human understanding, a spirit of friendliness, an appreciation of the opportunities of the present and of the future, and an eagerness to impart these things to us so that we can go forward.

Because of the increasing rate with which students are coming into the high school (in September the enrollment was 750; in March it had jumped to 993), changes have had to take place in the staff. Five teachers had to be added. Two others had to be shifted to other responsibilities, the fulfillment of which demanded additional personnel. In addition, following the Christmas holidays double sessions had to be instituted for grades 7 and 8. Without exception, all administrators and instructors have met the challenge so that a full school program is progressing smoothly and any inconvenience resulting from half-day schedules has been a problem for the faculty rather than for the student body.

PENNSBURY'S PRINCIPAL Richard Currier strikes a familiar pose as he gives unhurried attention to a problem that will receive his famed impartial handling.

CHECKING OVER schedules and attendance lists are Assistant Principals Joseph W. Rohrbaugh and Stanley Beuchler.

MEMBERS OF the Parent-Teachers Association Executive Committee are shown discussing plans for raising additional scholarship funds. Left to right, they include Mrs. Brown, Mrs. Bledsoe, Mrs. Kafes, Mrs. Wright, Mr. W. Ringler, Mr. C. Clark, and Mr. H. Ellis.

"For You Alone" . . .

DOING a little harmonizing after hours are these members of the music department: A. Wolfe, A. Webster, and J. Sturrock.

GUIDANCE DIRECTOR M. Dwyer gives advice on college choice to Lois Cobb and Anthony Ragolia.

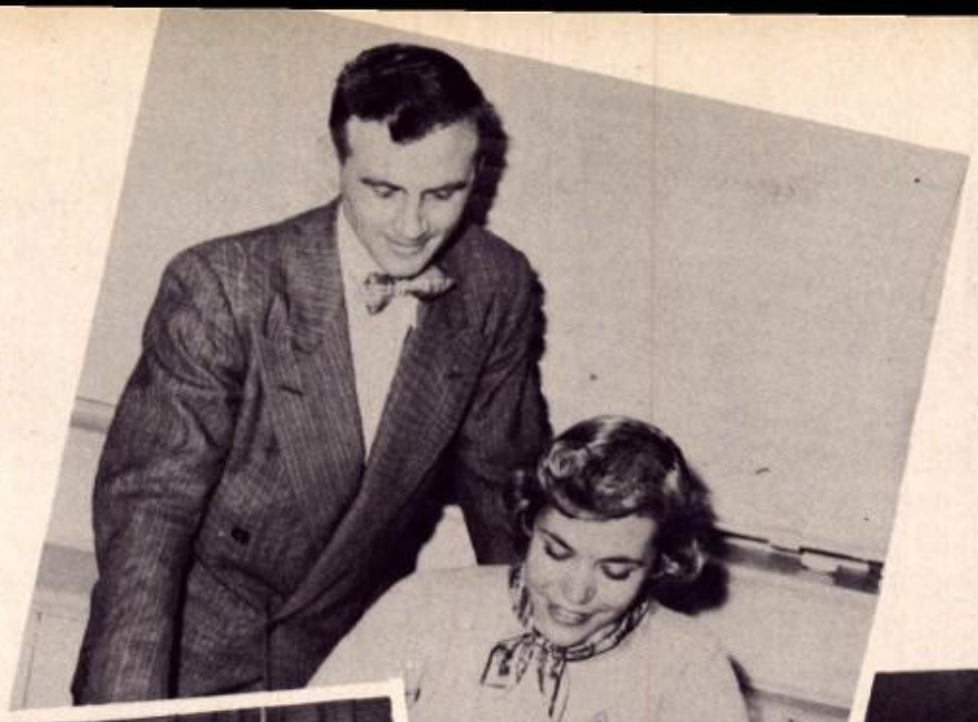
W. COOPER, recently appointed chairman of the English department, chats with Dr. E. Wilson, professor at Rider College, who spoke to the English teachers in January on "Speech Improvement in the High School." New English instructors, R. Shepherd and A. D'Angelo, listen interestedly to the discussion.

TALKING OVER the course of study in home decoration are M. Uhler (chairman) and J. Torongo, of the home economics department.

H. RUFF, school nurse, checks one of the first aid kits which are now required in the dining room and science rooms.

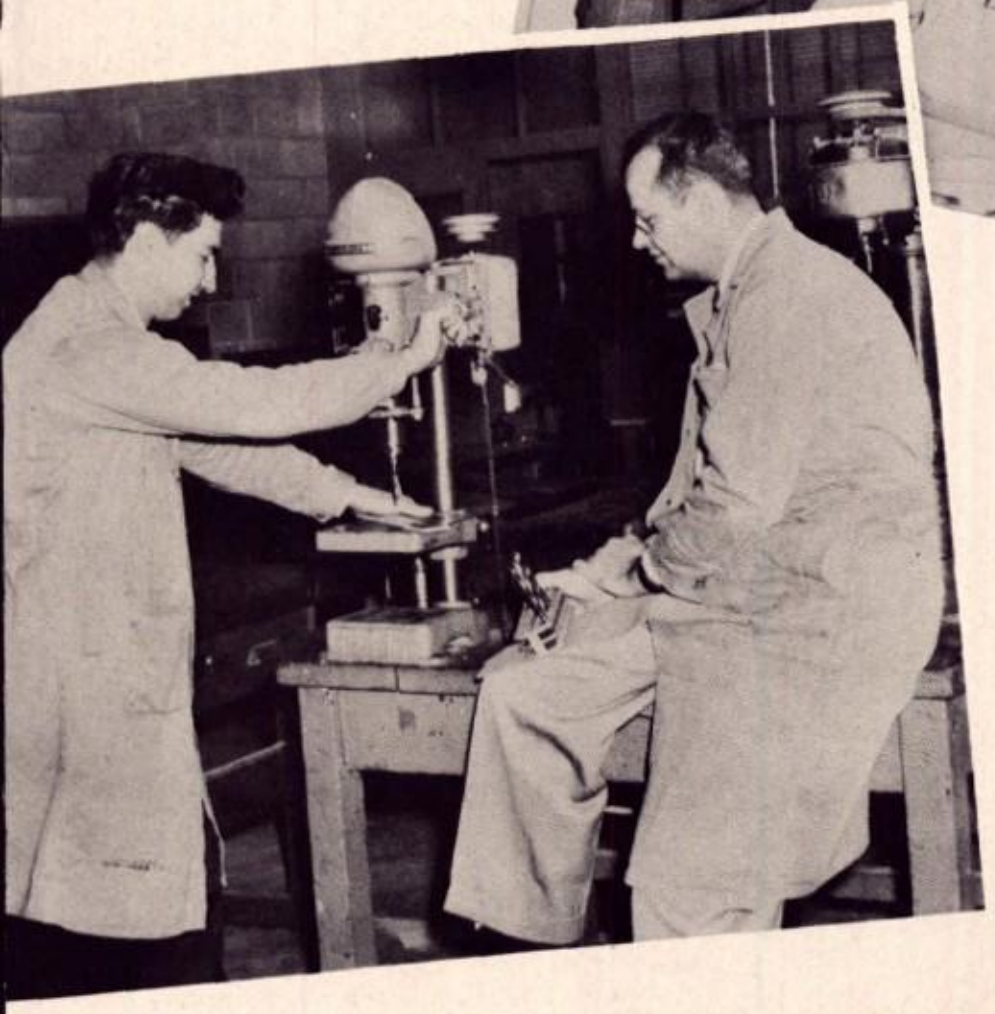
GRADE 8 faculty members gather in one of their customary semi-weekly grade level meetings to discuss some problems, connected with Core Curriculum. Left to right: A. Donzanti, B. Brenner, J. Farese, M. Kelly (chairman), J. Torongo, J. Henry, H. Rump, and W. Kile.

W. BACHMAN (chairman of Grade 9, faculty) talks to A. Krespach (chairman of the mathematics department) about the freshman math program.



ART DEPARTMENT instructors J. Good and J. Stroup (chairman) inspect a student's masterpiece.

LOOKING OVER some forms to be used in the new Work-Experience program, enrollees in which attend school part time and work part time, are P. Ronkin (chairman), J. Mazzone, and K. Vella of the business education department.



MECHANICAL ARTS instructors D. Davis and T. Greene (chairman) ready for operation one of the many pieces of equipment in the shop.

INTENT UPON the instruction in operating the new film strip projector, as given by Librarian W. Ringler, are language teachers B. Nielsen, F. Taylor, H. Hill, W. Cooper, I. Creagmile (chairman of the English department until February when she became guidance counselor for grades 7, 8, and 9), E. Carfagno (chairman of the foreign language department), and D. Sherman.

LISTENING TO G. Jarmoska, recently appointed Director of Athletics, are physical education teachers J. Hasney, J. Egli, R. Hoffman, and J. Gavin.

"Wonderful Words"

THE GRADE 7 Faculty await several parents whom they have called to the school to discuss some children having problems. L. to R., they include B. Brenner, E. Jakob, J. Good, C. Baldwin, H. Hubbard (chairman), G. Barsky, and E. Hamilton.

REGIONAL SUPERINTENDENT M. Bair dictates to secretaries M. Hughes and N. McIntyre in his office, while L. Rock and N. Bixler are busy handling the adding machine and telephone, respectively.

B. SMITH is about to make an announcement over the intercommunications system as E. Cordwell, secretary to Mr. Currier, checks some data at her desk in the main office.

SOCIAL STUDIES instructors, H. Hill and T. Kirby (chairman), look over new reference material for their department.

INSPECTING a rare specimen in the botanical laboratory of the science department are E. Krespach (chairman), D. Henry, J. Henry, H. Seidel, C. Baldwin, and F. Debias.

Seniors

The Sweetest Sound We Know . . .

To the tune of "Pomp and Circumstance"...

THE SENIOR class officers meet to discuss the agenda for a forthcoming class meeting. Listening to Secretary Wilma Hume are President Anthony Mazzocchi, Vice-president Anthony Fergione, and Treasurer Dan Chapla.

MEMBERS OF the Candy Sales Committee, S. Noble, D. Kellett (co-chairman), J. Dorland, and L. Cobb (co-chairman), are shown arranging candy at one of the basketball games. Proceeds of the venture went into the senior class treasury.

SENIORS RELAX in Room 107 to the tune of ice cream and cider at the annual homeroom Christmas party.

"Unfinished Symphony"...

Dances, plays, elections, Sports Nite, breakfasts and trips — you name it — kept all class executive committees "cutting a rug" as they carried their responsibilities to a conclusion.

Whether jitterbugging or waltzing, momba-ing or fox-trotting, all comers had a good time at the Harvest Hop (seventh grade as host), the Turnabout (the Pennsman staff), the Snow Hop (eleventh grade), the Valentine Dance (seventh grade), Holiday in Heaven (twelfth grade) and the Junior Promenade (eleventh grade).

For those who liked to "trot the boards" there were "Danger—Girls Working," staged by the Senior class, and "The Late Christopher Bean," staged by the Junior class.

The mock presidential election and Sports Nite were two events conducted by and for all classes. Need it be said that, in the former, there was a Republican landslide! in the latter, an overwhelming Orange victory—whoops, Black—gosh, can't remember which—(actually, we don't know, for the Pennsman goes to press before the event is even scheduled).

Completing the year's activities were the much dreamed of senior trip to Washington, D. C., preceded by the traditional breakfast, served by the juniors.

For fun, fellowship—headaches, too—Pennsbury had them in 1953.

LISTENING TO M. Pisauro, secretary of the Class of '54, are other junior officers—M. J. Stryker treasurer, D. Stetter (president), and V. Garnier (vice-president).

M. CAFFEY entertains a group of his classmates as he gives one of those required "talks" in Grade 11 English.

MR. SHERMAN'S Spanish I class imbibes some Spanish culture the easy way — by recording instead of from a textbook.

Throughout each school year at Pennsbury, a number of students representing the editorial, the business, and the photographic sections of the Pennsman staff labor diligently to produce a finished yearbook ranking "tops" in literary style and photographic quality. This is due in no small part to the great cooperation shown among the departments. In the book are included every phase of school life—faculty, students, activities.

Another publication, the Pennsburian, is issued several times a year to keep the student body up to date on the latest events, gossip, and other topics of current interest. After an interim of two years, it was decided once more to have the paper professionally printed. As yet, the financial solvency of such a venture is still in jeopardy.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Scholarship, leadership, character, and service—these qualities which should be striven for above all others are honored by election to National Honor Society of those students who have displayed them to a remarkable extent. This year 26 seniors and underclassmen—the highest number since Pennsbury began—were initiated at a special candlelight service, Wednesday, April 1. Speakers on the occasion were T. Ragolia, C. Curtin, A. E. DeCou, S. Noble, and W. Kafes.

HONOR SOCIETY

JUST AFTER NEW members have been sworn in, the Pennsbury chapter lines up for an official picture. Row 1: M. A. Neeld, J. Dorland, J. Hopkins, C. Brocklebank, R. Perestam, J. Purcell, D. Kellett, L. Cobb. Row 2: S. Noble, E. Williams, A. E. DeCou, W. Kafes, T. Ragolia, C. Curtin, E. Hubert, T. Gorko. Row 3: T. Paric, E. Reindl, S. Dotts, M. J. Stryker, G. Matlack, C. Queen, C. Burger (manager). Row 3: D. Gerard, W. Loch, J. Cagney, J. Ellis, D. Doheny, J. Kellett, T. McMillan, D. Felver, D. Patton. Row 4: Coach Egli, M. Caffey, D. Dickey, T. Paric, L. Edwards, M. Baldowski, T. Mazzochi, D. Bray, and Coach Jarmoska.

As the 1952 football season ended, the Falcon varsity had written a 6-won, 4-lost record in the books. Led by Coaches Jarmoska and Egli, the brilliant backfield play plus able assistance from the linemen enabled the squad to score outstanding victories over several other league contenders. The boys placed third in the Lower Bucks County Conference.

TAKING IT easy just before school opened in September are these boys of the football squad—at least that is the impression one would get from this picture. Actually, they were putting in a rough pre-season training period at a camp in northern New Jersey.

Row 1: R. Walle, T. MacMillan, H. Briggs, Coach Henry, R. Bray, T. Marks, and J. MacMillan. Row 2: H. Conley, T. Mazzocchi, D. Murphy, M. Baldowski, E. Dost, D. Gerard, and A. Queen.

Led by Coach Henry, Pennsbury's varsity basketball team in a one-game play-off with Bristol finished second in the Lower Bucks circuit.

Instrumental in Pennsbury's attack were Ray Bray and Tony Mazzocchi, with great promise shown by sophomore Jim MacMillan.

Outstanding victories during midseason were scored over arch enemies, Bristol and Morrisville.

"Shoot for the basket . . .

COACH HENRY gives some last minute instructions to the starting line-up. What's so funny, Baldowski?

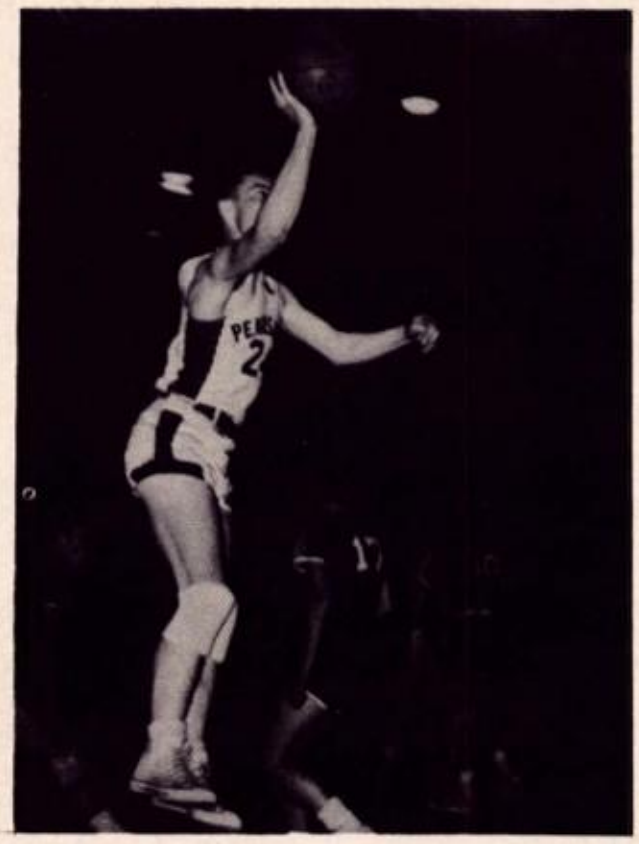
LOOKING ON as Coach Henry explains a maneuver are R. Bray, M. Baldowski, A. Mazzocchi, T. Marks, H. Briggs, and Assistant Coach Gavin.

T. MARKS lets go a one-handed lay-up during the Morrisville game.



THE VARSITY proves their prowess over the Pennsbury Alumni.

J.V. BASKETBALL TEAM

Row 1: L. Turner, P. Giordano, D. Rapino, B. Kelly, D. Patton, D. Dickey. Row 2: C. Gilit, G. Dost, J. Cox, F. Queens, J. Smiley, D. Nicholson. Row 3: Coach Bachman and Manager Erb.

THE 1952 BASEBALL TEAM
Kneeling: H. Powell, J. Baziow, A. Scancella, E. Kimble, G. Mayo, D. Sthen, and W. Bowman. Standing: Coach Bachman, R. Bray, C. Bennett, M. Baldowski, L. Powell, D. Williams, B. Bray, J. Purdy, and D. Gerard.

Off to its 1952 season, Pennsbury's varsity baseball team, led by Coach Cy Bachman, proceeded to rack up the imposing record of twelve victories—most of them by large margins. Aided by the slugging of Chris Bennett and Ray Bray and the terrific pitching of Bill Bray and Larry Powell, the Falcons scored three shutouts in the early part of the season. During the last half of their schedule, the team dropped four games to tough opponents because of costly errors. In a hard fight for league supremacy, Pennsbury placed second in the Lower Bucks County League.

Completing a fair 1952 season, the varsity softball team, led by Coach Tompkins, won games over hard-hitting Neshaminy and Delhaas, but dropped several to other contenders in the league. Outstanding in the Pennsbury attack were sluggers A. Hunter and J. Jones with batting averages of .666 and .500, respectively.

1952 VARSITY SOFTBALL TEAM
Row 1: P. Pinelli, A. Hunter, B. Smith (captain), L. Grimes, C. Smiley. Row 2: Manager M. Kellett, D. Ellis, M. Ashton, E. Finney, G. Carver, G. Matlack, J. Jones, L. McNiece, S. Noble, C. Glatz, and Coach Tompkins.

PRACTICING AT the Y. W. C. A. pool in Trenton are members of the girls' swimming team: C. Hillmeyer, H. Bishop, J. Dorland, L. Whitehead and L. Cobb. The team, coached by Miss Neilson, participated this year in several swimming meets.

THE JUNIOR high cheerleaders rest for a minute before their next cheer.

Despite the fact that the eighth graders were in school only during the mornings and the seventh graders were in school only during the afternoons, a fairly full program of competitive organized sports was carried on. Football and baseball were probably the most popular, though track with over fifty entrants held its own. Unfortunately because of press deadline, no pictures of the 1953 baseball and track teams could appear in this book. Coaches included A. Donzanti, E. Hamilton, and G. Barsky (football), J. Egli and G. Eisenhart (baseball), J. Farese and A. Donzanti (track).

SPORTS NIGHT

DONOR GEORGE DOUGHERTY presents team trophies and individual trophies to H. Briggs and A. Shepherd, captains of the winning Black Team. A radio announcer holds a "mike" for clear reception over WBUD.

This years Sports Nite, an annual event, was probably the best Pennsbury ever scheduled. Truly an athletic field night, students of all grades under the tutelage of the physical education department demonstrated almost every kind of sport mentionable. Tears flowed in the Orange camp at the end of Friday evening, March 27 (Girls' Night), as top team seemed to be the Black. Smiles were gleeful among the victors the following night (Boys' Night) as, sure enough, the Ebony competitors proved their prowess. Surely no other school event stirs school spirit as much as this one.
